Assessor's Office Monthly Report – April 2026
To: The Walton Town Board
From: Office of the Town Assessor

I. Data Collection and Field Operations

Progress Report: The Assessor's Office is pleased to report that we are making significant progress with our current data collection initiatives. Field reviews and property inventory updates are proceeding according to schedule.

Inter-departmental Cooperation: We would like to extend our professional thanks to Garrett Newbauer for his assistance in providing building permits. This cooperation has greatly streamlined our administrative processes and enhanced our ability to navigate our field duties effectively.

II. Exemptions and Public Assistance

Public Outreach: Our office remains dedicated to taxpayer assistance. We have been actively distributing STAR program information and guidance to all residents who have visited the office with inquiries.

Exemption Processing: We are currently in the final stages of reviewing and processing the following:

- Agricultural and Forest exemptions.
- Senior Citizen property tax applications.

III. Legal Requirements

Public Notification: Please be advised that official legal notices will be published shortly. These notices will formally outline the specific dates and deadlines regarding the upcoming changes to the assessment roll.

Respectfully Submitted,
Penny S. Haddad
